Viking Tech Corporation

2020 Business Report

I. Business Policy

The company has focused on the market development of automotive and resistors and special functional resistors in recent years, which have been successfully recognized and supported by global major automotive manufacturers. Viking has actively promoted the brand name through agents, distributors, and branches worldwide. The main products are thin-film precision resistors, MELF precision resistors, current sensing resistors, high voltage, surge /Pulse resistance, and anti-sulfur that are used in automotive electronic control devices and various high-end electronic products, especially in Mainland China, electric meters, power management markets, global industry equipment and instrument, Internet of Things, and other related electronic components.

The market demand sharply declined at the beginning of 2020 due to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. However, another wave of demand for passive components emerged due to the increasing demands for video, remote work, and medical facilities. Despite the raging pandemic in Europe and the United States, the demand for 5G applications and electric vehicles in Taiwan and China increased; therefore, the demand for passive components also increased significantly with the record-high sales in the Asian market achieved. The sales growth in the second half of the year was significant with the annual sales goal achieved despite the sales decline in the first half of the year.

The company actively adjusts the customer structure and product structure based on the dominant precision and passive components with special specifications in the market. First of all, the company expands the production of automotive resistors, thin film resistors, and metal foil resistors that are in large demand, especially the MELF precision resistors in response to high market demand. Secondly, the company focuses on securing and expanding the market share of automotive, industrial control, and advanced consumer electronics, and improves the company's market position by soliciting more international manufacturers. Thirdly, rationally plans the deployment of production lines in Wuxi, Taiwan, and Kaohsiung, strengthens the construction of infrastructure to lay the foundation for the company's subsequent development; and provides customers with categorized product integration services.

The Company is also committed to research and development of various high-end, high reliability and high power components to meet the special needs of customers, to continuously develop products based on competitive advantages in niche markets, and to improve the product yield rate and reduce costs to improve competitiveness in response to the intensive business environment.

II. General Condition of Implementation

After the implementation of the original 2020 business policy, the annual achievement rate against the annual forecast revenue figures for 2020 was 97%, and the revenue growth was 1% lower than that of the previous period. In the coming year, the passive components remain desperately short of stock globally. After the Company invests in expanding the production of high-end components, revenue will continue to increase, indicating that the current business policy is in line with market demand.

III. Result of Implementation of Business Plan

The revenue under 2020 business plan is NTD 2,200,000 thousand and net income before tax is NTD 220,000 thousand, and after actual execution, the revenue is NTD 2,126,186 thousand, and net income before tax is NTD 192,150 thousand.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS TRANSLATED FROM CHINESE

PWCR20000156

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of VIKING TECH CORPORATION

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of VIKING TECH CORPORATION and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) as at December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the related consolidated statements of comprehensive income, of changes in equity and of cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as at December 31, 2020 and 2019, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the “Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers” and the International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC Interpretations, and SIC Interpretations as endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit of the consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2020 in accordance with the “Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants” and ROC GAAS ; and in accordance with the “Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants”, “Rule No.

Financial-Supervisory-Securities-Auditing-1090360805 issued by the Financial Supervisory Commission on February 25, 2020” and generally accepted auditing standards in the Republic of China (ROC GAAS) for our audit of the consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2019. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Code of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountants in the Republic of China (the “Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole and, in forming our opinion thereon, we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

The key audit matters in relation to the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2020 are outlined as follows:

Cut-off risk error of revenue recognition

Description

Refer to Note 4(25) for accounting policy on revenue recognition. The Company is primarily engaged in exports and offers different credit terms to their customers. The credit terms for some customers are delivered at place and the timing for transferring the control of goods is based on the customer confirmation documents. Given that the revenue recognition process relies on manual processes and the large volume of daily sales transactions which are material to the financial statements, we thus consider sales cut-off as a key audit matter.

How our audit addressed the matter

We performed the following audit procedures on the above key audit matter:

1. Assessed the reasonableness of the sales recognition accounting policy.
2. Understood and tested the design and effectiveness of relevant internal controls when recognising the sales revenue.
3. Sampled delivery orders and customer confirmation documents during a certain period before and after the balance sheet date to ensure the accuracy of cut-off of sales revenue.

Assessment of allowance for inventory valuation losses

Description

Refer to Note 4(13) for accounting policies on inventory, Note 5 for significant accounting estimates and assumptions of inventory, and Note 6(5) for details of allowance for inventory valuation losses.

The Company manufactures and sells thick and thin film passive components products. Due to the competitive market in the industry and the fluctuating prices, there is a higher risk of inventory losing value or becoming obsolete. The inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value and the possible losses arising from aged and obsolete inventories are also assessed. Given that the evaluation on the aged and obsolete inventories involves subjective judgement which results in estimation uncertainty and the impact of aged inventories and allowance for inventory valuation losses are material to the financial statements, we thus consider assessment of allowance for inventory valuation losses as a key audit matter.

How our audit addressed the matter

We performed the following audit procedures on the above key audit matter:

1. Understood and assessed the reasonableness of allowance for inventory valuation losses policy including the historical sources of inventory clearance process.
2. Obtained the inventory assessment report prepared by the management and checked the completeness of the information on the inventory aging report.
3. Verified the accuracy of the intervals and relevant information used on the inventory aging report, ensured the allowance loss valuation and the provision policy are consistently applied and further assessed the reasonableness of the estimations of allowance for inventory valuation losses.

Other matter - Parent company only financial reports

We have audited and expressed an unmodified opinion on the parent company only financial statements of Viking Tech Corporation, as at and for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the consolidated financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the “Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers” and the International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC Interpretations, and SIC Interpretations as endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group’s ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance, including audit committee, are responsible for overseeing the Group’s financial reporting process.

Auditor’s responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor’s report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ROC GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ROC GAAS, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group’s internal control.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management’s use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group’s ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor’s report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor’s report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS TRANSLATED FROM CHINESE

PWCR20000376

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of VIKING TECH CORPORATION (the “Company”) as at December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the related statements of comprehensive income, of changes in equity and of cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at December 31, 2020 and 2019, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the “Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers”.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit of the financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2020 in accordance with the “Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants”, "Rule No. Financial-Supervisory-Securities-Auditing-1090360805 issued by the Financial Supervisory Commission on February 25, 2020” and generally accepted auditing standards in the Republic of China (ROC GAAS); and in accordance with the “Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants” and ROC GAAS for our audit of the financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2019. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the parent company only Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountants in the Republic of China (the “Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole and, in forming our opinion thereon, we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

The key audit matters in relation to the parent company only financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2020 are outlined as follows:

Cut-off risk error of revenue recognition

Description

Refer to Note 4(25) for accounting policy on revenue recognition. The Company is primarily engaged in export and offers different credit terms to their customers. The credit terms for some customers are upon delivery to a specific location and the timing for transferring the control of goods is based on the customer confirmation documents. Given that the revenue recognition process relies on manual processes and the large volume of daily sales transactions which are material to the financial statements, we thus consider sales cut-off as a key audit matter.

How our audit addressed the matter

We performed the following audit procedures on the above key audit matter:

1. Assessed the reasonableness of the sales recognition accounting policy.
2. Understood and tested the design and effectiveness of relevant internal controls when recognising the sales revenue.
3. Sampled delivery orders and customer confirmation documents during a certain period before and after the balance sheet date to ensure the accuracy of cut-off of sales revenue.

Assessment of allowance for inventory valuation losses

Description

Refer to Note 4(12) for accounting policies on inventory, Note 5 for significant accounting estimates and assumptions of inventory, and Note 6(4) for details of allowance for inventory valuation losses.

The Company manufactures and sells thick and thin film passive components products. Due to the competitive market in the industry and the fluctuating prices, there is a higher risk of inventory losing value or becoming obsolete. The inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value and the possible losses arising from aged and obsolete inventories are also assessed. Given that the evaluation on the aged and obsolete inventories involves subjective judgement which results in estimation uncertainty and the impact of aged inventories and allowance for inventory valuation losses are material to the financial statements, we thus consider assessment of allowance for inventory valuation losses as a key audit matter.

How our audit addressed the matter

We performed the following audit procedures on the above key audit matter:

1. Understood and assessed the reasonableness of allowance for inventory valuation losses policy including the historical sources of inventory clearance process.
2. Obtained the inventory assessment report prepared by the management and checked the completeness of the information on the inventory aging report.
3. Verified the accuracy of the intervals and relevant information used on the inventory aging report, ensured that the allowance loss valuation and the provision policy are consistently applied and further assessed the reasonableness of the estimations of allowance for inventory valuation losses.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the “Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers”, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance, including the Audit Committee, are responsible for overseeing the Company’s financial reporting process.

Auditor' s responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ROC GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ROC GAAS, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.
